AVOIDANCE OF DISPUTE PROCEDURE

- a. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the following mechanism and procedure must be used for the resolution of any dispute (including potential dispute) arising in the workplace:
- b. Disputes between an employee and the employer in respect of any employment matter. The procedure applies to a single employee or to any number of employees.
- c. The parties agree that it is in the interest of all parties to resolve disputes and grievances in the most timely and efficient manner possible. It is therefore agreed that as soon as is practicable after the dispute or claim has arisen, the employee/s will refer the issue directly to their immediate supervisor, affording them reasonable opportunity to remedy the dispute or claim.
- d. If the matter remains unresolved, or is of such a nature that a direct discussion between the employee/s and their immediate supervisor would be inappropriate, the employee will refer the matter to the next level of supervision or management as appropriate.
- e. If the matter remains unresolved at this stage the employee may seek assistance in resolving the matter from a Union delegate or a representative of their choice. The employee and their representative should take the matter up directly with the appropriate level of management.

- f. A reasonable time frame will be permitted for management to investigate the matter and respond to the employee/s, and unless a valid reason exists to do otherwise, an initial response shall be provided within forty-eight hours of the matter being raised in (e) above.
- g. If after discussion between Patrick and the employee/s and their representative, the matter remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a resolution, either party may refer the matter to the Commission.
- h. Pending the completion of the procedure set out in this clause, work shall continue in accordance with this Agreement without interruption. When a dispute arises over the lawful exercise by the Company of management discretion and is not at variance with a clearly expressed and acknowledged Agreement, pending resolution of the matter, work shall continue in accordance with this Agreement, contracts of employment and the direction of the Company. Where the above does not apply, the status quo will apply in accordance with any clearly expressed and acknowledged Agreement pending resolution of the matter.
- i. Discussions at any stage of this procedure will not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made.
